Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

The summer is over and the best European women's handball clubs are ready to return to the courts. Welcome to the EHF Champions League Women 2023/24!

Last season set new records in the premium club competition, with 20,022 fans rocking out the MVM Dome in Budapest for a superb EHF FINAL4 Women in June and setting a new record for attendance of a women's handball match. We can't wait for more history to be made in the competition's 31st season.

Vipers Kristiansand won the trophy for a third year in a row in 2022/23 and must surely be considered once again among the favourites. Drawn this year in group B, they will meet 2023 runners-up FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria, two-time EHF FINAL4 participants Team Esbjerg and 2022 bronze medalists Metz Handball, plus two-time winners Krim Mercator Ljubljana, EHF European League Women 2023 champions Ikast Handbold, CS Rapid Bucuresti, and debutants MKS Zagłębie Lubin in the group phase.

Record champions Györi Audi ETO KC are the team to watch in group A as they look to improve on last season's third place result. Györ face some experienced opponents, such as 2016 champions CSM Bucuresti, two-time winners WHC Buducnost BEMAX, SG BBM Bietigheim, Brest Bretagne Handball, Scandinavian powerhouses Odense Håndbold and IK Sävehof, and fellow Hungarians DVSC Schaeffler, as they set out for Budapest one more time.

That road begins on Saturday 9 September. As in the previous season, EHF Champions League Women matches will be played on Saturdays at 16:00 and 18:00 CE(S)T, and Sundays at 14:00 and 16:00 CE(S)T. Every point counts and the two best-ranked teams from each group will advance directly to the quarter-finals. The teams finishing between third and sixth will first proceed to the play-offs.

Enjoy the matches!

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer

Let's Play

DVSC SCHAEFFLER

This will be only the second season in history for the Hungarian side in the European premium competition, after they made their debut in the 2010/11 season. In their previous appearance, DVSC SCHAEFFLER only won a single game, at home, against Hypo losing other five. DVSC last qualified for the knockout phase of an European competition in 2011/12 season, when they reached the quarter -finals of the Cup Winner's Cup. Debrecen brought in five new players, including line player Tamara Haggerty from HH Elite and rightback Elinore Johansson from Storhamar, with six other players leaving over the summer. Several young talented Hungarian players, like Gréta Kácsor and Petra Füzi-Tóvizi are the cornerstones of DVSC and crucial to the team's success.

SG BBM BIETIGHEIM

Despite almost doubling the number of wins from their previous four seasons in the EHF Champions League Women, with five in 14 matches, Bietigheim still failed to make the cut for the knockout phase last season

The German side bounced back in the domestic league and sealed back-to-back titles for the first time in their history, after an unbeaten season

Bietigheim have a new coach: Jakob Vestergaard, who returns to the Champions League after seven years. Vestergaard replaced Markus Gaugisch, who focuses solely on coaching Germany

Bietigheim need only 73 goals to reach the 1.500-goal milestone in the European top competition. The German side lost important players, like the right back Julia Maidhof and right wing Trine Ostergaard, but had five players joining, including former Győr right wing, the Hungarian Dorottya Faluvegi.

Bietigheim won first two matches in this Champions League season. They started a five-goal win against Buducnost and beat the Romanian CSM Bucuresti with two goals.
